Hillsboro Canal Road To Be Built By State Rd. Dept.

The County Commission this week approved adding a four-mile stretch of road leading to the Loxahatchee recreation area to its list of roads for temporary maintenance.

The shell road, which runs along the Hillsboro Canal, has been in the news lately as a road for which no one cares to claim ownership. Meantime, sportsmen who use the road to reach the recreation area, have asked that something be done in the way of maintenance.

Commissioner George Warren told the board Monday that the state road department plans to rebuild the road in the near future. Meantime, he said, the SRD asked

7 & 8th Grades Will Be Moved To Pahokee

The Seventh and Eighth grades of Canal Point school will be moved to Pahokee in September, it has been announced by the county school board in West Palm Beach. Plans are underway for the move, with Canal Point records for the two grades already in the hands of Pahokee school officials.

Many parents in Canal Point are disturbed by the plan to move the two grades to Pahokee, saying that more space is available in the local school than in the Pahokee, institution. The local school has not been overcrowded and the move by the county school board, poses a perplexing question to Canal Point fathers and mothers who are exceptionally proud of the results obtained each year in the local school.

A group of Canal Point parents plan to appear before the county school board in West Palm Beach at the next regular meeting to voice their protest to the proposed move.

Credit Service May Be Doubled In Next Decade

"The volume of credit service to agriculture by production credit associations may double during the next decade," according to Harry B. Matthews, president of the Farmers Production Credit Association, who has just returned from Bal Harbour, Florida, where he attended the 30th Anniversary Production Credit Association Directors' Conference on June 7-9.

Mr. Matthews said, "Reports at the conference indicated the application of capital using technology in agriculture and reorganization of farm units are continuing and the short and intermediate term credit needs of farmers will probably double during the next ten years. The PCAs should continue to furnish an increasing share of the credit needs of farmers."

"The 77 production credit associations in Florida, Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina have provided approximately $4 million in credit service to farmer members since organization 30 years ago. The Farmers Production Credit Association has provided $103,094,523.00 to farmers of this area since organization in December of 1933," according to Mr.

Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

Sweeping improvements destined for Palm Beach International Airport moved forward on several fronts this week.

The commission learned Monday that the Federal Aviation Agency has waived objections for the sale of some 600 acres of land adjacent to the airport. Sale of the land, the FAA said, would be okay if funds are used for airport improvements.

The county commission welcomed the news, since the board plans to use funds from the land sale as a cushion and security to back a $3 million bond issue for construction of a modern passenger terminal.

Commissioner E. F. Van Kessel predicted that release of the land would allow the commission to build what it plans for $1½ million and that it wouldn't be necessary to sell the entire authorized bond issue.

This observation prompted commissioner George Warren to remark—"why don't we add another half million and do a good job?"

County Attorney Harry Johnston told the board it need only issue whatever amount of bonds it desired but that it couldn't top the $3 million ceiling, which it had already set.

The board, in another action, decided to study the idea of a land development plan for the 600 acres with the possibility of releasing portions of the property rather than trying to find a buyer for the entire acreage.

The board also learned that "The PCAs in the four-state district with 90,000 farmer-members made loans to 50,000 of these members in 1963 in the amount of more than $265 million, more than double the volume 10 years ago," he said.

"The Farmers Production Credit Association served 270 farmers with loans totaling $14,892,000.00 in 1963 in Indian River, St. Lucie, Okeechobee, Martin, Palm Beach, Broward, Dade, Collier and Monroe counties," Mr. Matthews added.

Other officials of the Farmers Production Credit Association attending the conference included George H. Juvenile Judge Flares Up Over Printed Stories

Judge Emery Newell, judge of the juvenile court, told the county commission Monday that he was being unjustly criticized in the press because of statements emanating from some of the county commissioners.

In a letter which he read to the commission, Judge Newell said he had been unjustly criticized for not submitting his budget on time and because he had not made a report on incidents which had occurred at the county detention center located at Palm Beach International Airport.

As for the budget, Judge Newell said his request had been submitted the week of May 1 and that a month later, County Commissioner Chairman Edward Bandow was reported as saying the budget request had not been received.

As for the report on the detention center, Judge Newell said he had not been requested to make one as had been reported by Commissioner E. F. Van Kessel. The judge said he had checked the minutes of the commission meeting when the request was supposed to have been made by Commissioner Van Kessel and that the commissioner had asked him for information on the incident and not for any recommendations by Judge Newell. "Are we supposed to gaze into crystal balls to determine what Commissioner Van Kessel wants," Judge Newell queried.

Judge Newell said he submitted a report and two weeks later was being criticized by commissioners for not having submitted one. He asked for a public apology.

"We have been subject to criticisms and you are the ones that are wrong," Judge Newell told the commission.

Judge Newell said the main purpose of his letter to the commission was to "set the record straight." He agreed, at the request of Commissioner Van Kessel, to report incidents which occur at the detention center and to make what ever recommendations he believed necessary if the case warranted such remarks.

In other actions this week the commission:

Ordered a speed study on Palm Beach Canal Road at the request of Lt. J. J. Panozza, West Palm Beach policeman, who said the limit is far too low for present day traffic. A message from the Treasury of a free people

How to speak out for freedom today

Free men have never gone in much for silence. Even before the first thirteen States became United States, men were speaking for freedom loud and clear.

Today Americans speak out for freedom many ways—in Congress, in local government, in neighborhood activities. Some speak out for freedom in other languages, in other lands. And millions of Americans speak out for freedom every time they buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in freedom. While you're saving money for your own family's future, you're helping Uncle Sam tend to the business of keeping men free today.

Perhaps you don't speak out for freedom in the same tone of voice when you buy a Bond as Patrick Henry did in his famous speech. But you speak every bit as surely. And every bit as proudly.

Why not speak out for freedom now? Buy Bonds at the bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with your U.S. Savings Bond won't lose its value...or even stop growing

What happened to U. S. Savings Bonds?

They've been stolen and thrown into a river. Mistakenly left in an oven and baked at 400°. Hidden in a cookie jar and eaten full of holes by hungry beetles. Forgotten in a pair of work pants and washed, bleached and spin dried. Cut in tiny pieces by an irate wife. Gnawed by mice, and gobbled by goats.

Yet, in spite of all these misfortunes, these Bonds belong to their owners. They don't stop growing in value.

The Treasury Department has a record on microfilm of every Savings Bond sold. So if yours is lost, destroyed or
